

Effective Discovery Practices in CIVIL LITIGATION

Delaware Technical Community College is pleased to host a continuing legal education course titled "Effective Discovery Practices in Civil Litigation." In this session, attendees will learn about the implementation of Rule 16.1 which requires mandatory arbitration in civil cases valued under $50,000. Upon completion of this course, Delaware Tech will submit names and cover expenses associated with earning 3.0 CLE credits to include 1 credit of Enhanced Ethics.

Panelists:

Richard K. Herrmann, Esquire
Litigator
Morris James LLP

Jeffrey A. Young, Esquire
Attorney
Young & McNelis

The Honorable Robert B. Young
Superior Court of DE (retired)
Of Counsel
Reger Rizzo & Darnall LLP

Thursday, November 2
9 a.m. – noon

William A. Carter Partnership Center | Room 555 A/B
21179 Campus Drive | Georgetown, DE 19947

The event is FREE and open to the public.

Registration is required.
Please contact Alison Buckley at abuckley@dtcc.edu or 302-259-6086
Delaware Tech Alumni? Let us know.

DELAWARE
TECHNICAL  COMMUNITY
COLLEGE